Come Home for Christmas

This program has been available for several years. Members of Holy Family are encouraged to reach out to family, friends or acquaintances that they know are Baptized Catholics that are not currently attending Mass or practicing their Faith. Many say I've been away so long can I come back? Some may have been hurt by someone at the Church and need healing. You as a practicing Catholic can be the instrument of their return by an invitation. "God always waits for us, even when we have left Him behind! He is never far from us, and if we return to Him, He is ready to embrace us."

-Pope Francis

Ven a Casa Esta Navidad

Este programa ha estado disponible por varios años. Los miembros de la Sagrada Familia estan siendo animados a hablar a familiares, amigos o conocidos que saben que son Católicos bautizados que no estén llendo a misa o practicando su fe. ¿Muchos se preguntan e estado lejos tanto tiempo puedo volver? Algunos pueden haber sido heridos por alguien en la iglesia y necesita sanación. Usted, como católico practicante puede ser el instrumento de su retorno por una invitación. Dios siempre nos espera a nosotros, incluso cuando lo hemos dejado atrás! El nunca esta lejos de nosotros, y si volvemos a él, está dispuesto abrazarnos.

-Papa Francisco

Prayers for Paris

Our first response to the horrific news from Paris is a prayerful “Oh my God.”

The unspeakable savagery of the massacre and maiming of hundreds of innocent men and women in Paris by the Islamic State terrorists numbs the mind – 129 killed, including 20-year-old American student Nohemi Gonzalez, and 352 injured. Magnifying the incredible barbarity is the fact that it was done in the name of God. In the words of Pope Francis, “There is no religious or human justification for it.”

It is human to be filled with anger and thoughts of vengeance but the inevitable retaliation will only increase the cycle of violence gripping the world. A major cause of such violence and brutality is the fact that 1.3 billion people live in extreme poverty that breeds hopelessness and desperation. Hopelessness ferments and breeds desperate solutions.

We must pray for the leaders of France and other nations that a just and appropriate path will be found to end this darkness that is plaguing the world.

May God bring consolation to the families and friends of the victims of this horror as we add our prayers to theirs for lost loved ones. -Bishop Kevin J. Farrell

Oremos por París

Nuestra primera respuesta ante la terrible noticia de París es implorar “¡Dios mío!”

La barbarie incalificable de la masacre y mutilación de cientos de mujeres y hombres inocentes en París por los terroristas del estado islámico paraliza la mente. Esta increíble crueldad es mucho peor debido a que se realizó en nombre de Dios. En las palabras del Papa Francisco, “no hay justificación religiosa o humana para esto”.

Es de humanos sentir coraje y sentimientos de venganza, pero la venganza sólo aumentará el ciclo de violencia que azota al mundo. Una de las principales causas de violencia y brutalidad es el hecho de que 1.3 billones de personas viven en una extrema pobreza que alimenta la desesperanza y desesperación. La desesperanza fermenta y genera soluciones desesperadas.

Debemos orar por los líderes de Francia y otras naciones para que se encuentren un camino justo y adecuado que acabe con esta oscuridad que está asolando al mundo.

Que Dios lleve consuelo a las familias y amigos de las víctimas de este horror mientras nosotros nos unimos a ellos en oración por los seres queridos que han perdido. -Bishop Kevin J. Farrell

Pope Francis: condolences to France after terror attacks

(Vatican Radio) Pope Francis has sent a telegram to Cardinal André Vingt-Trois, Archbishop of Paris, assuring victims, their families and emergency personnel that he is united with them in prayer.

Signed by the Secretary of State of the Holy See, Cardinal Pietro Parolin, the telegram condemns this and all acts of violence, and asks God to inspire thoughts of peace and solidarity.

Below, please find Vatican Radio’s English translation of the telegram

Cardinal André Vingt-Trois, Archbishop of Paris

Informed of the horrific terrorist attacks that occurred in Paris and at the Stade de France, killing a great number of people and wounding many others, His Holiness Pope Francis joins in prayer with the suffering of families affected by the drama and the pain of the French people. He invokes God, Father of mercy, asking that He welcome the victims into the peace of His light and bring comfort and hope to the injured and their families. He assures them, and all of the personnel participating in aid efforts, of his spiritual closeness. Once again, the Holy Father vigorously condemns violence, which cannot solve anything, and he asks God to inspire thoughts of peace and solidarity in all and to impart on families in this trial and on all of the French people, the abundance of His Blessings. Cardinal Pietro Parolin Secretary of State of His Holiness (from Vatican Radio)

“The present and the future of the Church depend on shaping disciples who are strongly committed to sharing and spreading the faith.”

Greetings Confirmation Leaders!

It is with great excitement and joy that we share this Confirmation White Paper, which is a belief-statement about the Sacrament of Confirmation, written collaboratively by:

The Office of Youth, Young Adult, and Campus Ministries

The Office of Worship

The Department of Catechetical Services

The Catholic Schools Office

This belief statement calls those who journey with the young church to intentionally engage in their roles of shaping, inspiring, and animating youth into their role as disciples of Jesus Christ. Parents/families, confirmation preparation teams, and the parish community are ALL charged with providing environments for catechesis that awaken and empower the Young Church to be the "MORE" in the world today.

In order to continually assess and transform our own ministerial efforts, we must engage in thought provoking and intentional conversations. We encourage you to read this belief statement in a reflective manner and begin to discuss it with your parish leadership and Sacramental Preparation Teams.

As you prayerfully read the Confirmation White paper, reflect on the following:

What does this White Paper invite us all to consider?

What is affirming to current parish efforts? What is challenging?

What insights have you gleaned?

We invite all confirmation preparation team leaders plus Pastors, Youth Ministers, Music Ministers involved in Confirmation, parish Catechetical Leaders and confirmation Catechists, Catholic school Principals and middle-school teachers to join us on Wednesday December 2, 2015 to engage in facilitated dialogues as we roll out some important and critical collaborative thinking and Relgnite Confirmation preparation in the Diocese of Dallas!
