HITTING IT BIG

It seems to be commonly accepted nowadays that everyone wants to win the lottery, hit the slots big at the casino, or be a millionaire. This attitude is akin to what the first hearers of the parable of the successful farmer would have thought: Why, of course he'd want to find a way to preserve his good fortune for the future, to secure for himself a life of leisure, eating, drinking, and merriment. It's exactly the kind of life that the right ticket, hand of cards, or quiz show answer might bring us today. Being surrounded by this "common wisdom" makes the words of Qoheleth, the psalmist, Paul, and Jesus all that much harder to hear today. Perhaps good fortune will be ours, perhaps it will not be. But if we make that fortune or the quest for it the heart, the very center, of our lives, then we will live to regret it. We will not achieve the future security we pursue, and we will lose the present moment in the chase.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Sometimes the treasures of art can provide us with clues about traditions. Take, for example, the miter, the conical hat with lappets, or back-flaps that fall to the shoulders. This cap is worn by bishops in the Catholic West. Eastern Catholics favor a crown, but we have this curious headpiece. In Greek, the word means "turban." Old paintings and mosaics provide clues about headgear for bishops, and there is very little artistic evidence for the miter before the year 1000. Before then, some kind of head covering might have been worn to offset the damp and chill of unheated churches. The pope, as far back as the seventh century, often wore a cap called a camelaucum. Around that time, artists painting St. Peter began to portray their subject wearing this hat. By the year 1000 or so, the pope began to grant similar helmet-shaped headgear as gifts to visiting abbots and bishops. They returned home with these new chapeaus, and before long everybody wanted one!

Today, miters are granted not only to bishops, but to certain favored abbots and occasionally abbesses. Pope Benedict XVI set aside the tradition of the papal tiara in favor of the miter, even on his coat of arms. Pope Paul VI was the last pope to have a coronation. As recently as the 1960s, miters were towering skyscrapers of jewels and rich silks, but now a simplicity of style is favored by bishops. Miters are here to stay, and experienced altar servers know how to await the bishop's removing of the miter, since he does not wear it when he is saying the presidential prayers or the Eucharistic Prayer. —Rev. WORRY

Don't tell me that worry doesn't do any good. I know better. The things I worry about never happen.

Prayer Does Not Need Words, It Only Needs Faith

by Bishop Kevin J Farrell

Prayer is about our answer, not God's. Pope Francis reminded us recently that "Prayer is not a magic wand," that it is not all about us, what we want, what we need. Prayer is not so much about petition as it is about presence. It is our acknowledging God's presence and our response.

Isaiah stood in His presence and responded, "Here I am Lord, send me." (Isaiah 6:8) Prayer is seeking God's will. It is us standing in His presence saying, "It's me Lord ... Mary ... What do you have in mind?" Jesus gave us the pattern for a prayer of petition at Gethsemane when he prayed that his cup of suffering might pass, "Father, if you are willing, take this cup away from me; still, not my will but yours be done." Luke 22:42)

When I read the Holy Father's words, I am reminded of a little verse that children are taught: "I know not by what method rare, but this I know, God answers prayer." Pope Francis continued, "God promptly answers his children, although this does not mean he does it in the time and manner that we would like. Prayer is not a magic wand! It helps to preserve our faith in God, and to trust in Him even when we do not comprehend His will. In this, Jesus himself – who prayed so much– is the example."

When the Apostles asked to be told how to pray, Jesus taught them the Lord's Prayer. It acknowledges God's holiness, hopes for the coming of his kingdom, seeks his will, prays for our needs, and then seeks His forgiveness and protection.

What better pattern for our prayer?

Prayer does not need words, it only needs faith.

La oración no necesita palabras, solo necesita fe

by Bishop Kevin J Farrell

La oración es nuestra respuesta, no la de Dios. El Papa Francisco nos ha recordado recientemente que "la oración no es una varita mágica", que no se trata de nosotros, de lo que nosotros queremos ni de lo que necesitamos. La oración no es tanto petición sino presencia. Es ser capaces de reconocer la presencia de Dios y de responder a ella.

Ante la presencia de Dios, Isaías respondió: «¡Aquí estoy: envíame!» (Is 6,8). La oración es buscar la voluntad de Dios. Somos nosotros ante Su presencia diciendo, "Soy yo Señor... María... ¿Qué tienes en mente?" Jesús nos mostró la forma de hacer una oración de petición en Getsemaní cuando preguntó si era posible que se evitara su sufrimiento, «Padre, si quieres, aleja de mí este cáliz. Pero que no se haga mi voluntad, sino la tuya» (Lc 22,42).

Al leer las palabras del Santo Padre, recuerdo un verso de un poema que se enseña a los niños: "No sé por cuáles métodos se logra, más la oración Dios la contesta, eso lo sé". El Papa Francisco continuó, "Dios escucha con prontitud a sus hijos, si bien esto no significa que lo haga en los tiempos y en las formas que nosotros quisiéramos. La oración no es una varita mágica. Ella ayuda a conservar la fe en Dios, a encomendarnos a Él incluso cuando no comprendemos su voluntad. En esto, Jesús mismo —¡quien oraba mucho!— es un ejemplo para nosotros".

Cuando los apóstoles le pidieron a Jesús que los enseñara a orar, Él les enseñó el Padre Nuestro, en el cual se reconoce la santidad de Dios y la esperanza en la venida de su reino, se busca que se haga su voluntad, se ora por nuestras necesidades y se pide su perdón y protección.

¿Necesitamos una mejor manera de orar?

La oración no necesita palabras, solo necesita fe.
