The Miracle of Christmas

*It started with Mary,
so humble and mild,
With the heart of a Woman
and the faith of a child.
She rose above anything
she might have feared
To answer, "Amen"
when the angel appeared
And on that first Christmas,
in spite of the cold,
A sweet newborn baby was all hers to hold
As strangers and shepherds,
ignoring their sheep,
Watched while she rocked
Little Jesus to sleep.
What joys we can know,
what a miracle starts
When we, too, can say yes
to God in our hearts!
Mary kept all these things,
And pondered them in her heart. Luke 2:19*

Most Reverend Edward J. Burns Installed February 9, 2017 as Bishop of Dallas

Pope Francis has named the Most Reverend Edward J. Burns to serve as the new Bishop of the Diocese of Dallas. The much anticipated appointment was announced today, December 13, 2016 in Washington, D.C. by the papal nuncio to the United States, Archbishop Christophe Pierre. Bishop Burns, the new Chief Shepherd of the 1.3 million Catholics in the Dallas diocese, succeeds Cardinal Kevin Farrell, who left Dallas for Rome on October 1 after the Pope appointed him the Prefect of the Vatican Dicastery for Laity, Family and Life. Bishop Burns will be introduced and speak to the media at a news conference on Tuesday, December 13th, at 2:00 p.m. at the Pastoral Center of the Diocese of Dallas. View live stream coverage at www.cathdal.org/video.

Since 2009, Bishop Burns has served as the Bishop of Juneau, Alaska. Prior to that, the 59-year-old bishop served the Catholic Church on the national level as Executive Director of the Secretariat for Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations at the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in Washington, D.C. from 1999 -2008. In 2008 he was named the Rector of St. Paul Seminary in Pittsburgh, PA. In January 2009, he was named the Bishop of Juneau. Prior to 1999, Bishop Burns served in parish ministry, diocesan administration and did extensive work in vocations.

The new Bishop of Dallas says he is looking forward to his appointment, "I am extremely happy and humbled that Pope Francis has chosen me to lead such an important diocese and I look forward to serving the local Church of the Diocese of Dallas. I am profoundly grateful for my experience in Juneau and I pray for God's grace as I take on my new duties as Chief Shepherd of this ever-growing Diocese of Dallas." The new Bishop-designate also stressed that "I look forward to listening and learning all that I can about this beautifully diverse Catholic community and I want to assure all in the Diocese of Dallas that I will be a shepherd for all people."

Bishop Greg Kelly, Apostolic Administrator of the Diocese of Dallas, said "I appreciate Bishop Burns' great energy and enthusiasm about his new assignment here and we are very grateful that our Holy Father has sent us a Chief Shepherd so quickly. I enjoyed working closely with Cardinal Kevin Farrell and I now look forward to doing all that I can to assist Bishop Burns in continuing to build up the Catholic Church in the Dallas area."

Bishop Burns was born on October 7, 1957, in Pittsburgh, PA. to Geraldine Little Burns and the late Donald P. Burns. He was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Pittsburgh on June 25, 1983. Pope Benedict XVI appointed Bishop Burns to be the fifth Bishop of Juneau in January 2009. He was ordained as a Bishop on March 3, 2009, in Pittsburgh, PA, and took possession of the Diocese of Juneau a month later.

Since becoming Bishop of Juneau, Bishop Burns has been an active member of the USCCB, the Northwest Regional Bishops Conference, the Alaska Catholic Conference of Bishops, and travels widely as a speaker and facilitator. He currently serves as Chairman of the USCCB Committee on the Protection of Children and Young People, a member of the Subcommittee on Catholic Home Missions, and serves on the Catholic Relief Services Board of Directors. Bishop Burns has been a frequent Bishop Catechist at World Youth Day events and a presenter at convocations, conventions and retreats nationwide.

December 2016

My Dear Friends in Christ,

As we look forward to celebrating the birth of the Christ Child, I encourage you to also consider an important opportunity to witness to the gift of life He has given us. On January 13 and 14, we will gather together to honor that gift at the annual Diocesan Roe Memorial Mass and North Texas March for Life Events.

I invite you to join me for the bilingual Roe Memorial Mass celebrated at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, January 13 at St. Monica Catholic Church in Dallas or a parallel Mass celebrated in Spanish by Father Jesús Belmontes at nearby San Juan Diego Catholic Church. This Mass, remembering the over 57 million unborn children denied the gift of life, is especially important in the wake of the 2016 decision by the U.S. Supreme Court re-affirming the tragedy of Roe v. Wade and striking down pro-life protections passed in Texas. It is crucial in times like these to avoid the temptation of despair and to embrace the ultimate promise of victory through Jesus Christ.

On Saturday, January 14, we will joyfully stand witness to that promise at the North Texas March for Life Events, including:

- Youth For Life Rally at 10 a.m. at St. Jude Chapel in downtown Dallas,
- Peaceful Prayer at 11 a.m. outside Dallas abortion facilities,
- Procession of Roses at 12:30 p.m. at Dallas City Hall, and
- North Texas March for Life at 1 p.m. from City Hall to the federal courthouse.

I strongly encourage all North Texas Catholics, especially families and youth, to join me in these two days of prayer and witness. The presence and participation of our Catholic families are one of the most compelling testimonies to the gift of life. As our Holy Father shared this past spring: "Human life is defended and promoted most effectively only when its beauty is known and shown."

I look forward to celebrating and sharing this beautiful gift with you on January 13 and 14. For more information about the events, please visit prolifedallas.org/roe or contact the Catholic Pro-Life Committee at 972-267-LIFE (5433). May God bless you!

Faithfully in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory Kelly, D.D.

Apostolic Administrator

Diocese of Dallas
